Philadelphia Athletics Win Pennant

FOURTH VICTORY OF SERIES CAPTURED BY AMERICAN LEAGUE

New York Giants Are Defeated by Score 3 to 1—Plank's Marvelous Pitching Holds Giants to Two Hits and Makes Philadelphia Pitching Hero of World's Series Games—Great Lefthander in Splendid Form—Bewildering Crossfire Stands Giants on Their Heads.

BAD ERROR GIVES NATIONALS ONLY RUN

Mathewson Pitches Superb Ball and Holds Athletics Safely After Third Inning—McGraw Hastens to Congratulate Connie Mack While Philadelphia Rooters Swarm on Field and Carry Eddie Plank Off on Their Shoulders.

Polo Grounds, New York, Oct. 11.—The Philadelphia Athletics, pennant winners of the American league, are the world's series champions of 1913. Defeating the New York Giants by a score of 3 to 1 today, the Athletics captured their fourth victory of the series. The National league pennant winners won one game. Plank's marvelous pitching today when he held the Giants to two hits makes him the pitching hero of the world's series games. Last Wednesday on the Philadelphia field Plank shut out the Giants for nine innings only to lose the contest in the tenth. The Athletics left hander never was in better form, his bewildering cross fire standing the Giants on their heads. Had not Plank muffed a pop fly with a double play in sight, the Giants would have gone scoreless through the game.

Mathewson also pitched superb ball and after the third inning held the Athletics safely. The Philadelphia club garnered its three runs in the first and third innings. After the game, Manager McGraw hurried over to the Athletics' bench and congratulated Connie Mack.

The Philadelphia rooters swarmed down on the diamond and bore Eddie Plank across the field on their shoulders.

Thirty-five thousand people saw the plays that made up this official box score:

GAME BY INNINGS.

First Inning.—The crowd gave a big cheer when Mathewson walked out to the hurling hill. Murphy singled on the first ball pitched, Fletcher being barely able to reach it with his ungloved hand. Murphy was forced at second when Matty took O'Driscoll's bunt and tossed to Fletcher. Collins shot a single to right, O'Driscoll easily making third. O'Driscoll scored when Burns caught Baker's sacrifice fly. Burns made a wild throw to the plate, the ball going over McLean's head. Collins went to second on a wild heave. Herzog took McInnis' splash and threw to Doyle, who touched out Collins. One run, two hits, one error.

Second Inning.—Plank's first pitch was a ball knee high. After two balls and two strikes had been called, Plank and Collins had a conference in the pitcher's box. Herzog out on a fly to Murphy. Plank worked coolly and deliberately as if trying to conserve all his energy. Doyle out, Barry to McInnis on a lightning feeding play in which Barry took the ball on the run behind the pitcher's box. Fletcher went out on a long fly which O'Driscoll took up near the fence. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Third Inning.—Doyle tossed out Strunk at first. Mathewson's big looping drop curve was in fine work-

WIRELESS TELLS OF BIG DISASTER

Ship Had 657 Passengers and 136 Are Unaccounted For—Aid Arrives.

Polo Grounds, New York, Oct. 11.—The New York Giants stood on their last line of entrenchments today and depended on Christy Mathewson to repulse the attack of the Philadelphia Athletics, who need only one more game to make them world's champions of 1913.

The National league champions have won only one game in the series and must take three straight to win. Thirty-five thousand or more persons came out to the Polo Grounds to view the battle. The gloomy weather kept the Philadelphia crowd down but those enthusiastic few missed no opportunity to cheer their team.

With heavy clouds drifting in from seaward, there was a constant fear that rain would end the struggle. Canvas mats protected the inner playing field from the night's down-pour and the ground keepers had the diamond in shape for smart fielding play.

"We may give you a chance to look over two new pitchers today," said Big Ira Thomas, the Athletics' catcher. "There is Brown and Shawkey, who have yet to show their pitching wares, either one will give 'Matty' a run and we can use Plank if necessary."

"We'll be in there fighting until they draft us or the other fellows out," remarked McGraw.

The Giants were the first on the field for a long batting practice. McGraw had told them in the clubhouse that if they expected to make a stand today they would have to give Mathewson support with their bats.

In batting practice, Doyle, Merkle and McLean sent long drives down toward the center-field fence. McGraw and Mathewson were the last to come on the field and the crowd cheered them a loud demonstration.

The Athletics warmed up on the side lines.

One o'clock found nearly every seat in the unreserved stands and bleachers occupied and the crowd was still jamming through the turnstiles at the entrances.

BOYS AND GIRLS ARE MADE HAPPY BY CASH PRIZES

Could those people who were responsible for the school garden movement in Ogden and those who generously donated for the prizes given to the young gardeners have seen the faces of the boys and girls light up in smiles when the prize money was distributed in the board of education office this morning by J. J. Andrews, they would have felt well repaid. The office of the board was a cheerful one.

Before Mr. Andrews, the agriculture instructor, was ready to begin the distribution there were a number of boys and girls present. Some of the boys were overalls, stating that they still had work and had left the gardens only to get the money.

All plainly showed how proud they were to be among the list of prize winners.

As Mr. Andrews paid off the boys and girls, he made out blanks to which the winners were requested to sign their names, showing that they had received the prize. Every winner took pains to have the name written in the best hand possible.

Only the individual prizes were distributed. George Vogel secured the largest cash prize, $15, and he was praised by the director for the excellence of his garden.

Miss Ruth Craft was given honorary mention. It was regretted by the committee that no arrangements had been made at the first of the spring season for a prize for corn grown by school children. Miss Craft had a most excellent garden of corn for which she was complimented by the committee.

Those who received cash prizes and the amounts follow:

Ernest Halverson, $15; Alfred Rodd, $15; Orval Anderson, $15; Itachael Jenkins, $15; Frank Wheeler, $15; George Seaman, $15; Lulu Norsteth, 75 cents; Aza Briscoe, $15; Roy Scholman, $25; Leonard Hooper, $1; Russell Petty, $15; Ellen Nelson and Lizzie Jones, $15; George Vogel, Jr., $15.

There are still other prizes to be awarded to individuals besides the awards of the silver cups to the three prize-winning schools.

CLEVELAND GAME POSTPONED

Cleveland, O., Oct. 11.—Pittsburgh National-Cleveland American game postponed on account of rain.

BOTH BRANCHES OF MEXICAN NATIONAL CONGRESS SUSPENDED

Provisional President Huerta Rids Himself in Spectacular Way of Both Houses of Government, Constitutes Himself Dictator of Mexican Republic and Leaves City—Executive Receives a Warning.

SENATOR HAS MYSTERIOUSLY DISAPPEARED

One Hundred Ten Members of Chamber of Deputies Arrested and Lodged in Penitentiary—Huerta Prepares to Go Any Length—Dominguez Drops From Sight Following Speech Attacking the President's Policies—Situation Serious.

Mexico City, Oct. 11.—Provisional President Huerta's coup last night, whereby he rid himself in a spectacular manner of the legislative bodies of the government and constituted himself dictator of the Mexican republic, has left the city today in a state of tense expectancy.

The dissolution of the national congress was not wholly unexpected in political circles, but the manner of its accomplishment served to demonstrate the lengths to which the executive was prepared to go to maintain his grasp on the administrative affairs of the nation.

The capital was alive with rumors this morning, one of them being to the effect that three deputies arrested last night, who were most active in promoting the clash with Huerta, had disappeared.

Senator Dominguez, whose attack on the provisional president in the senate was the starting point of the row, has not come to light. He is said to have prepared for eventualities in advance. Having determined on his line of conduct, he made his will and bade his family and friends good bye.

Both Branches Suspended.
Both branches of the Mexican national congress were formally declared suspended at a late hour last night by Provisional President Huerta.

The declaration was made after 110 members of the Chamber of Deputies had been arrested and lodged in the penitentiary for signing resolutions denouncing Huerta because of the disappearance of the senator for Chiapas, Dr. Belisario Dominguez.

Call for Election.
A proclamation was issued just before midnight calling for new elections of senators and deputies on October 25, which date is coincident with the presidential election.

The dissolution of the national congress was based on the alleged usurpation by the deputies and senators of the prerogatives of the chief executive in the matter of Senator Dominguez.

Provisional President Huerta declared that the Chamber of Deputies had constituted itself one of the executive's worst enemies, hostile to all his acts, and invading his jurisdiction, even to a point of questioning his selection of a minister of state.

Huerta Receives Warning.
The unexplained absence from his seat in congress of Senator Belisario Dominguez, representing the state of Chiapas, what precipitated the heated debate at the chamber of deputies' secret session. The debate resulted in a warning being conveyed to Provisional President Huerta by unanimous vote of the body that unless the deputies were given assurances of their personal safety they would hold sessions elsewhere than in the capital.

A resolution was adopted informing the executive that the deputies placed their lives under his specific protection and holding him responsible for the violation of immunity from arrest which the Mexican constitution gives to senators and deputies.

Policeman Took Dominguez.
Senator Dominguez dropped from sight yesterday, following his speech made in the senate chamber early this morning attacking the policies of Provisional President Huerta.

The only information obtained by the committee appointed by the chamber of deputies to investigate his disappearance was from Senator Dominguez' little son, who said that a policeman had taken his father away from the hotel.

Washington, Oct. 11.—Huerta's arrest of 110 deputies of the Mexican congress followed by the prerogative of both houses of that body, has put administration officials here in a state of anxiety.

No one attempts to disguise the view that the developments of the last 24 hours in Mexico City have precipitated what probably is the most serious situation since Huerta took office.

The greater part of the large body of troops that have been maintained in the capital have been sent north against the rebellion and thus Mexico City is left with a comparatively small garrison.

Larger Naval Force Needed.
The situation is regarded here as warranting the United States in maintaining a considerable naval force at Vera Cruz and Tampico, where Rear Admiral Fletcher has sailors and Marines ready for eventualities in case of a situation should develop beyond the capacity of the Mexican authorities.

Many officials regarded the developments as bearing out predictions that no elections would be held October 25.

The success of the Constitutionalists in the north by the capture of Torreón, the gateway to central Mexico, has also strengthened the belief of the administration here that a fair election cannot be held and that Mexico is far from pacified.

Recognition May Be Withdrawn.
Should no election be had October 25, there is a well defined belief among administration officials that foreign governments which already have recognized the Huerta regime, may withdraw their recognition.

It is considered possible here that the inability of the Huerta government to control the situation may result in the recall of John Lind from Vera Cruz, as marking the end of the American government's treatment with the de facto authorities.

State department advices from Mexico City late today announced that the 110 members of the Mexican chamber of deputies who were thrown into prison last night by order of Provisional President Huerta, were released today.

Additional advices to the state department were that in the turbulence attending the dissolution of congress, a petition was circulated calling Provisional President Huerta to resign and all the signers were arrested.

REBELS ENTER CITY IN ORDER

No Looting Allowed at Occupation of Torreón—Property Protected.

Mexico City, Oct. 11.—The number of Spaniards who lost their lives when Torreón was taken from the federal troops by the rebels dwindled to nine instead of the sixty or seventy at first reported. A Mexican who asserts that he was present in Torreón when the rebels entered, arrived here today and says that altogether only thirteen persons were killed when the city was taken, nine Spaniards and four Mexicans. They were shot for failing to deliver money and goods demanded by the rebels as "loans."

The same messenger declares that the rebels entered Torreón in good order and at the outset of the occupation there was no looting. They were commanded by Generals Villa, Fereyra, Tomas Urbina and Panfilo Natera, General Natera, who appeared to be in chief command, took steps to protect property, but demanded certain funds and provisions from the residents.

Loss of Torreón Not Important.
Provisional President Huerta appears to regard the loss of Torreón as of no particular moment from a military point of view. He declares today that it was the fortune of war and that the place would be quickly recovered by the federal troops. He admitted that the moral influence of the fall of Torreón was bad, since it might give the people of Mexico an unwarranted idea of the strength of the rebel forces. With the resources at the command of the government, General Huerta asserted his confidence that it was only a matter of days for Torreón to be retaken and all the prestige of the federal troops regained. The president said he was able to send ten thousand men at once to combat the rebels.

Federal Generals Under Arrest.
The federal generals, Bravo, Muniz and Escudero, who were at Torreón, arrived here today by a special train under arrest. They are to be brought before a military court to answer for the evacuation of Torreón. General Bravo is one of the oldest officers in the army. While he was nominally in command at Torreón, the active direction of the defense of that place was conducted by General Munguia, as Bravo was ill.

A persistent rumor was current in the federal capital today that the town of Mazatlan had been taken by the rebels.
